Prevent Child Abuse America announces the hiring of a new Director of Development

CHICAGO, IL - June 11, 2008 - Effective June 9th, Doreen G. Baker has joined the staff of Prevent Child Abuse America as the new Director of Development. Doreen has lived in Chicago for the past four years, previously living in Covington, Kentucky and Cincinnati, Ohio.

“We couldn’t be more excited to have Doreen join the team,” said James M. Hmurovich, President and CEO of Prevent Child Abuse America. “Her experiences in both the for profit and nonprofit worlds make her the right person at the right time to advance our development efforts to the next level.”

Doreen holds an MBA from Northern Kentucky University and has worked as the Development Director for several non-profit organizations including three in the Chicago area during special assignments throughout 2006-08: The Chicago Christian Industrial League, the Episcopal Charities and Community Service, and the Sinsinawa Dominicans. Prior to these assignments, she worked with Family Services of the Cincinnati Area, Catholic Social Services in Covington, Ky. and the Carnegie Arts Center in Covington, Ky. She also has served as an Assistant Vice President, Public Funds Group for Fifth Third Bank.

During her time in Chicago she has held active roles in the Association of Fundraising Professionals and Chicago Women in Philanthropy.
