

Awaken to Change — The National Conference for America's Children

Prevent Child Abuse America's 2012 National Conference

October 12-15, 2012 — Jacksonville, Florida preventchildabuse.org/conference/index.shtml for more information

As Prevent Child Abuse America celebrates its 40th anniversary in 2012, it will offer a national conference unlike any other in its history. From October 12-15, 2012, Prevent Child Abuse America will integrate emphasis on healthy childhood development, public policy, what's working in child abuse and neglect prevention, and the latest on messaging and corporate responsibility into a forward-thinking experience that will spark new conversations, forge new partnerships and open new doors as we work collectively towards building a national movement for America's children.

Recognizing that each of us has a role to play in ensuring the healthy development of our nation's children, the conference will blend hands-on training for professionals who work with families and run non-profit agencies, with broad discussions on the impact our work has on the neighborhoods and communities in which we live, and the future of our country as a whole.

Conference Highlights with a Focus on Advancing Public Policy:

- ◆ Workshop A03: Evidence-Based Policymaking in the Obama Administration
- ◆ Workshop B03: Advancing Public Policy
- ◆ Workshop C03: Advocacy 101
- ◆ Workshop D03: Implementing SBS/AHT Prevention Statewide: Successful Strategies and Common Pitfalls
- ◆ Workshop E03: Advanced Advocacy Strategies
- ◆ Workshop F03: Improving and Expanding Home Visiting Systems in Key States
- ◆ Workshop G03: Federal Policy Update and Action Steps
- ◆ Workshop H03: Advancing Public Policy
- ◆ Workshop I01: Advancing Public Policy

Plus much more — 100+ breakout sessions, networking, and Jacksonville's family friendly attractions! The Conference Registration Book has descriptions about all sessions— download from preventchildabuse.org

Questions? Contact Robert Allen—(312) 663-3520x827

Hurry and Save! The early bird discount has been extended to August 12th.